

PHYLLIS ANDERSON WEBB

Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Phyllis Anderson Webb, wife of Robert Webb, is the second child of Hyrum and Mary Whipple Anderson, born October 4, 1911, in Lehi, Utah.

She was educated in the Lehi Schools. After graduating from high school, she went to Salt Lake to the Quish School of Beauty. She worked as a hairdresser in American Fork until her marriage.

She started working in the Church at the age of fourteen, in the capacity of Mutual Improvement Association secretary. She worked here five years and then as counselor for two years, and then as president for two years.

She taught Sunday School for six years, a Primary class for two years and was First Counselor in the Relief Society for two years.

She was married to Robert G. Webb on March 20, 1933, in the Salt Lake Temple. To this union one child was born, named Phyllis JaLaine. She was blessed by her father in the Lehi First Ward.

The family lived on a ranch a mile west of Lehi, where Mr. Webb farmed and raised cattle for a living.

At present she is serving as First Counselor in the Lehi Stake Mutual Improvement Association and also as the President of the Parent-Teacher Association.

She is a member of the First Ward Choir and has sung at many funerals with choral groups.
